

QUEENSLAND -Beautiful 1 day. Perfect the next.

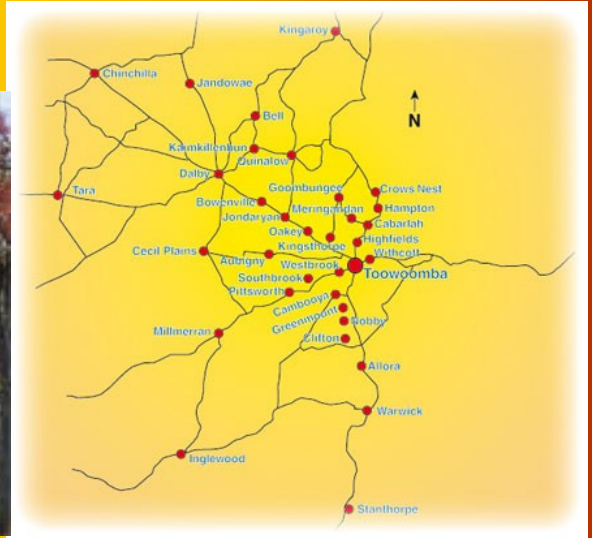

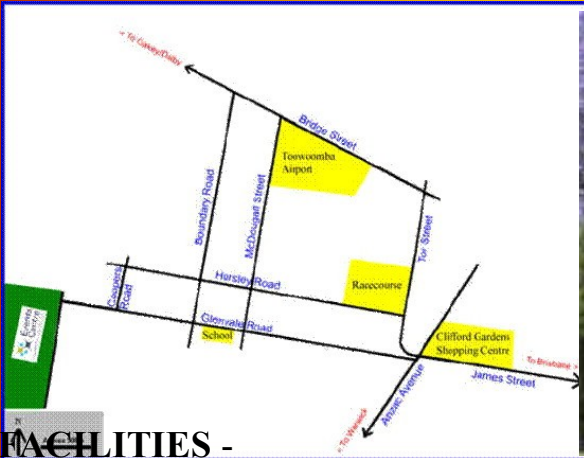

Just like all our beautiful ANDALUSIAN horses

TOOWOOMBA– (nicknamed 'The Garden City'- Carnival of Flowers) is a city in South East Queensland, Australia. It is located 132 km (82 ml) west of Queensland's capital city, Brisbane. More information –www.toowoomba.com or www.toowoomba.org

Host of the Queensland Nationals over the Easter weekend 2nd, 3rd, & 4th April 2010.
Dinner and Auction

WHERE—

ROYAL TOOWOOMBA SHOWGROUNDS

FACILITIES -

Dressage Park

Dimensions - 70 m x 125m

Situated to the western side of the cattle pavilion, adjacent to the indoor equestrian centre and main arena is Dressage Park. This picturesque area is ideal as a warm up area to any equestrian event or an added area for Dressage rings

Ahrens M & S Equestrian Centre

Building Dimensions - 70 m x 70 m

Arena Dimensions - 70 m x 40 m

Permanent seating available - Up to 1400

Temporary seating available - 1200

Toilets - Male/female/disabled

Stable Block

The M & S Stable Block (72m x 36m) is currently used a lot in conjunction with the Equestrian Centre as a stable and warm up block. The centre area offers 72m x 24m clear of structural frames and the adjoining wings are 72m x 6m either side.

With a large clear indoor area the M & S Stable Block This includes stabling to cater for up to 163 horses with a 9m x 6m grooming/vet area. Safe stallion stabling

Camping Area

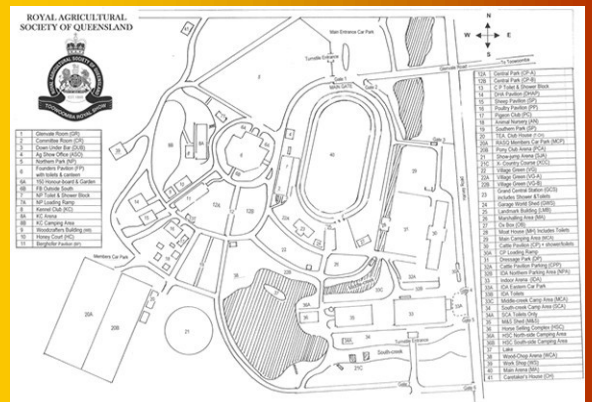

Sites - Over 200

Water and Power

Toilets - Male/female/disabled

Join us for what shall be a fantastic fun filled and enjoyable 3 days of competition and Catching up with fellow Horse Enthusiasts both old and new.

Programme will be in the next Federal News Magazine Salto al Cielo so start preparing for your Easter Break 2010 in sunny Queensland.

Contact—Daphne Miller

Ph – 61-7-54979366